Getting You Safely to Each New Adventure

Spartan's Advanced Protection System® allows you to drive from adventure to adventure with confidence, with advanced technology that makes owning and operating a Class A RV safer.

The only chassis made exclusively for motorhomes.

We didn't take the easy route and modify a truck chassis for our partners at Foretravel. We knew they wanted an unmatched ride that was as smooth and quiet as it was invigorating and well appointed. So, we built them the unique K4 605 chassis from the ground up, designed and engineered to connect the road to the driver with a trussed, torque-box frame that responds more like a luxury SUV than a truck with outstanding ride and handling.

The Realm Class A coach is built on the Spartan K4 605 chassis. Designed, engineered, and made in America with the finest components to create a premier foundation for the world's most demanding RV makers and owners.

The highest-quality materials provide reliability and dependability, along with nationwide service, and the best warranty in the business. Motorhomes riding on a Spartan chassis are built with care to stay on the road for a good long time.
